

Policy Adoption and Evaluation

Code #151.01

Except for policy actions to be taken on emergency measures, the adoption of Tri-County Area School District Board policies shall follow this sequence which will take place at least at two regular or special meetings of the Board:

1. New policies require two (2) readings at two (2) meetings before adoption by the full Board.
2. Administrative Rules and/or revised policies require one (1) reading before adoption by the full Board.

Opportunity shall be offered to concerned groups or individuals to react to policy proposals and/or administrative rules.

Policies and amendments to policies shall be effective immediately upon adoption unless a specified effective date is designated.

The Board shall ensure all policies conform to state and federal laws.
